

PRESS RELEASE
Milan, 23 May 2018

Guizhou Hengfeng F.C. and the Sports Law and Policy Centre (SLPC) concluded a landmark co-operation agreement

Top-tier Chinese football club Guizhou Hengfeng F.C., in the person of her charming President Ms Wen Xiaoting, and the renowned Sports Law and Policy Centre represented by its dynamic President, Mr Salvatore Civale, in cooperation with Minghetti Law Firm, announced a partnership aiming at developing educational and professional training in the field of Football Law.

President Civale was eager to outline that “SLPC has been constantly contributing to the growing harmonization of legal and economic standards in the international community. Guizhou Hengfeng F.C is a young club but it is already characterized by a solid management and innovative mindset. Thanks to this co-operation agreement, SLPC will promote an international understanding of new sports law issues in China and it will give the necessary insight to the Club in order to solve legal issues and to understand new trends at FIFA level”.

The parties recalled that in recent years, business has exponentially grown in Chinese football with a continuous increase in investment and new opportunities in the sports industry. At the same time, any investment needs to be legally framed and protected. In such a perspective, this partnership will eventually give the Club the possibility to acquire legal knowledge, create value and grow at global level.

For more information please visit www.sportslawandpolicycentre.com